Biliousness And Constipation.

"For years I was troubled with biliousness and constipation, which made life miserable for me. My appetite failed me. I lost my usual force and vitality. Pepsin preparations and cathartics only made matters worse. I do not know where I should have been to-day had I not tried Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. The tablets relieve the ill feeling at once, strengthen the digestive functions, helping the system to do its work naturally."—Mrs. Rosa Potts, Birmingham, Ala. These tablets are for sale by all druggists.

Golden Thoughts For The Week.

Monday—The art of life is to know how to enjoy little and endure much.

Tuesday—Half the ills we hoard in our hearts are ills because we hoard them.

Wednesday—Fresh responsibilities mean fresh power for serving God and man.

Thursday—How seldom we weigh our neighbor in the same balance with ourselves.

Friday—Through a thousand unnoticed openings our inner life is flashed upon the world.

Saturday—Conscience is the name the orthodox give to their prejudices.

Sunday—Perseverance accomplishes more than precipitation.

A Clarksville, Tenn., dispatch says that Dr. Thomas Hoskins, George Saunders and James Cross, three prominent citizens of Montgomery county, have been arrested on the charge of scraping plant beds and pulling up tobacco. The indictment of the men is the outcome of depredations which have occurred in the county during the past few months, in which a large amount of tobacco was destroyed and many threats made.

The Georgia Railroad Commission has issued an order calling on the Central of Georgia railroad and the Southern railway for "full disclosures touching the sale of stock of the former, so far as the facts may be known to them." A Good Liniment.

When you need a good, reliable liniment try Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It has no superior for sprains and swellings. A piece of flannel slightly dampened with Pain Balm is superior to a plaster for lame back or pains in the side or chest. It also relieves rheumatic pains and makes sleep and rest possible. For sale by all Druggists.

The Department of Justice has announced that efforts to reach an understanding with the attorneys for distillers upon a statement of facts for a test case in the matter of labeling whisky have proved futile, and the Department of Agriculture will be notified to certify cases of violation of the pure food act for prosecution.

Mr. T. I. Herring bought back the homestead, with improvements, and 30 or 40 acres of land. He will continue to reside at his old home here. The friends and neighbors are glad he and his family have decided to remain with us.—Marksbury Cor. Advocate.

THINKS THE I. J. A. GOOD ADVERTISING MEDIUM—Some months ago I advertised in your paper that I had for sale a farm in Lincoln county, Kentucky, known as the John D. Carpenter home place, near Hustonville, Kentucky. I received inquiries concerning this farm from numerous people in Lincoln and adjoining counties, and one or two from Illinois and Texas. It has been sold to Dr. J. B. Beck, a former resident of Lincoln county, but more recently of Somerset, Kentucky, and he and his wife have removed to the farm to reside. My object in writing you this letter is to express my appreciation of your journal as an advertising medium, and to apprise you of the result of the advertisement. I am sure that the people of Lincoln and the adjoining counties neglect a great opportunity if they do not advertise what they wish to buy or sell in your paper; for this land was advertised in no other way, and the result is as above stated. Of course, the land in question was desirable and worth the money, but that is none the less creditable to the advertising medium. Thanking you, I am very sincerely yours, C. N. Manning, Lexington, Ky.

A Methodist Minister Recommends Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

We have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in our home for seven years, and it has always proven to be a reliable remedy. We have found that it would do more than the manufacturers claim for it. It is especially good for croup and whooping cough.—Rev. Jas. A. Lewis, pastor Milaca, Minn., M. E. church. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is sold by all Druggists.

Soup at 15 cents a plate and rebate of $65. That's what Andrew D. Kennedy, a tailor, got to-day with his lunch. He had just computed how much he would lose by the stock market being closed, and "cut out" the 50-cent table d'hôte. Instead, he tried the soup and found something hard. When he shook out his napkin it made a noise on the floor. He picked it up and found a diamond. Fifteen minutes later a jeweler gave him $65 for the stone.—Pittsburg Press.

A Reliable Remedy For Croup.

Mrs. S. Rosenthal, of Turner, Michigan, says: "We have used Chamberlain's Cough Medicine for ourselves and children for several years and like it very much. I think it is the only remedy for croup and can highly recommend it." For sale by all Druggists.

He Fought at Gettysburg.

David Parker, of Fayette, N. Y., who lost a foot at Gettysburg, writes: "Electric Bitters have done me more good than any medicine I ever took. He is 75 years old. Several years ago Wright caused a granite block to be placed over the grave with his bust carved on it. The cut of the whiskers did not please him and he caused the sculptor to trim the stone enough to conform to his hirsute adornment. The inscription below the name reads: "Going, but know not where."

JUDGE R. C. WARREN.

At six o'clock, 50 minutes, P. M., Friday, Nov. 1st, 1907, the spirit of Judge Richard C. Warren took its flight. He had suffered from a three weeks' previous illness, superinduced possibly by a surgical operation performed last August for the removal of a tumor on the neck. The operation was successfully performed, and with but little loss of time he recovered sufficiently to resume his official duties. He failed to appear at his regular county court on the second Monday of October and from that date until his death he steadily declined. It is not known that his death was caused even remotely by the tumor, for it was pronounced benign by pathologists who made a microscopic test; but in the popular mind the two things are associated as bearing the relation of cause and effect.

Judge Warren was born in Lincoln county April 4, 1841. After his birth Boyle county was organized and his father's farm was included within the new county.

He graduated at Centre College in 1862 and after graduating, taught one term in one of its departments. He entered the Senior Class of the Louisville Law School in September, 1865, receiving his diploma in March, 1866. He immediately located in Stanford for the practice of his profession, forming a partnership for that purpose with Judge R. J. Breckinridge. In 1874 he was elected county attorney for Lincoln county, serving one term. In 1880 he was elected Commonwealth's Attorney for the Eighth Judicial district, serving one term. In 1889 he was chosen to represent his county in the General Assembly. In 1893 he was appointed master commissioner of the Lincoln circuit court, serving 11 years. In 1905 he was elected county judge and died when his term was about half over.

Judge Warren had lived in Stanford about 4½ years. He practiced his profession continuously all these years in this and adjacent counties, at one time in partnership with Col. W. G. Welch and later with Judge M. C. Saufley.

He was married on Jan. 9th, 1872, at Lancaster, Ky., to Miss Charlotte L. Duncan and is survived by her, five daughters and one son.

Thus has passed from mortal view an upright, well-known and well-loved man. Death did not take him by surprise. He was aware of its approach. To himself he may have said:

—Strange voices ring
On my soul's ear with sound that quickeneth;
"Build now or never," say they and they bring
The premonition of an early death
That bids me hasten with my harvesting.

A Hard Debt to Pay.

"I owe a debt of gratitude that can never be paid off," writes G. S. Clark, of Westfield, Iowa, "for my rescue from death, by Dr. King's New Discovery. Both lungs were so seriously affected that death seemed imminent, when I commenced taking New Discovery. The ominous dry, hacking cough quit before the first bottle was used, and two more bottles made a complete cure." Nothing has ever equaled New Discovery for coughs, colds and all throat and lung complaints. Guaranteed by Penny's Drug Store 50c and $1. Trial bottle free.

The grafter swears.

He's gotta live;
The rogue declares
He's gotta live.
It may be worse
To deal in verse,
But please don't curse—
I gotta live.

This is Worth Remembering.

As no one is immune, every person should remember that Foley's Kidney Cure will cure any case of kidney or bladder trouble that is not beyond the reach of medicine.

"The case had to be postponed again."
"Weren't the lawyers ready?"
"Yes; but the dressmakers demanded more time."

IN MEMORIAM.

Judge Richard Crutchfield Warren died Friday evening, Nov. 1, 1907.

How much, and yet how little, is told in this short sentence. That a man has died has been written of thousands, and will be written of thousands yet to die. It is a brief record, quickly made, quickly told. One who reads it will notice only a common event, and forget it the moment after. Another will pause to ask who was he who thus passed from among his fellows? What life did he live; what death did he die?

Why should mortal man enquire what his fellow man has done that his death should be chronicled? God has not made His creatures in vain. To each has been allotted his duty in life. Performed or unperformed, the allotment is there and shall stand. The noblest earthly tribute that can be paid to any man is that he did what he could in his own appointed sphere.

Richard C. Warren fairly won this mode of praise. He did his part. Whatever his task in the line of private or public duty, he essayed it. If irksome he did not evade it. If unpleasant he did not shrink it.

Esteemed by those who knew him, trusted by those who gave him places of trust, loved by friends who clove to him, adored by the wife he married and the children he nurtured—his final leave has made an empty space. He will be remembered. His name will be recalled by young men long after they shall have passed into the yellow leaf; and it will be mentioned respectfully and even tenderly. He was a just man, a generous man; warm in friendship, sincere in attachments; without guile, innocent of deceit, guiltless of duplicity. He was artless and confiding, justly despising sham, shallow pretense, hypocrisy and frauds. He was strong in mental convictions, conservative in judgment, immovable from moral principles.

Looking at it as men are wont to look, it does seem that his end was untimely. Why should so good and useful a man die just now? Though 66 years of age, he was not old. His powers of mind and body were mature and vigorous. His character was beyond reproach. He meditated evil to no one and did kindness to all he could. The mental query will arise: Ought not he to have been spared—spared to this community, spared to his friends, and above all, spared to his family? Helplessly, it may be ignorantly, we ask these questions now. The answer will come—the true answer—bye and bye.

With a calmness and fortitude all his own, conscious for days that the end was coming apace, he waited the inexorable advance of a fatal malady and died. He died but he was not vanquished. Death had lost its sting; the grave was shorn of its victory!

A WASHINGTON special says that Roosevelt will under no state of case accept the nomination for a third term. Teddy has evidently had his ear to the ground lately.

OUR LAST APPEAL.

This is the last time an appeal can reach many of our readers before the election, and as a last and final word we insist that you let nothing prevent you from going to the polls to-day and stamping under the rooster. If a party ever deserved emphatic endorsement, the democratic party does now. Its officials have kept every promise made to the people and brought peace and prosperous conditions out of anarchy and chaos. The State has been freed from debt, a new capitol is rearing its beautiful dome heavenward fully paid for, the penitentiaries have been put on a self-sustaining basis, the eleemosynary institutions have been improved and enlarged, a surplus of a million and a quarter will be in the treasury when Auditor Hager retires and the next Legislature can reduce the tax rate to 40 cents on the $100. The party that has done this certainly deserves the plaudit of "well done, faithful servant," and a decided vote of confidence and thanks. The republicans offer nothing but promises that they never keep. They have been tried and found wanting. Don't permit the hungry and vicious horde to get possession of the State government again. Go to the polls, stamp under the rooster, get your friends to do likewise and it will be all over but the shouting. Glory! Hallelujah!

It is stated in Washington that conservative financial leaders have requested President Roosevelt to call an extra session of Congress to deal with the currency question. As an alternative, in the event that the President does not see his way clear to call an extra session, he is asked to make a public statement to the country. These matters are still under consideration, but no statement is given out at the White House regarding the President's intentions. In the meantime Treasury officials are agreed that the financial situation is distinctly improved day by day, and advices from financial centers are said to be of a very reassuring character.

"I COME to you as a Democrat who never scratched a ticket and who never will, and I appeal to every Democrat to do as I intend to do, and that is, to vote for Judge Hager and for every Democrat on the State ticket," said Senator McCreary in his speech introducing William Jennings Bryan at Frankfort.

The last lie brought out against the democrats has been nailed, just as the others were. The charge that they had sold out to the whisky and brewery concerns was proven untrue by President Adams, of the Anti-Saloon League, and others a few minutes after the story was circulated.

On being informed that births had occurred in nine-tenths of the 300 families of Roebeling, N. Y., recently, President Roosevelt ordered free rural delivery abolished in that place and a postoffice established forthwith and immediately.

DON'T force the Fiscal Court to build a new court house. Vote for the bond issue and build it yourself. It will be much easier on the tax papers if bonds are floated.

W. H. SHANKS for Representative by 400 or over and S. W. Hager for governor, 20,000 or more, is our prediction.

POLITICAL.

Gov. Glenn, North Carolina; Gov. Comer, of Alabama, and Gov. Smith, of Georgia, held a conference in Atlanta on the railroad rate question.

Gov. Blanchard, of Louisiana, says the proclamation of Lieut. Gov. Saunders, issued in the governor's absence and ordering the extra Legislature to regulate the corporations, will not be allowed to stand.

John Sharp Williams, the democratic leader of the House of Representatives, says democratic success in Kentucky today is of vital importance to the National democracy, as defeat will not be considered as being due to local causes, but will be attributed to a lack of confidence in the party.

Representative James A. Tawney, of Minnesota, with other members of the Committee on Appropriations of the House of Representatives, left New York on the steamship Colon for the Isthmus to make personal inquiry into the present and prospective monetary needs of the Panama canal.

OUR boys got walloped 16 to 0 at foot ball in the game against the Lancaster eleven on their grounds Friday afternoon. The wind was blowing in the wrong direction for the Stanford players.

FOR RENT.—Store-room in lively Central Kentucky town. Especially adapted for restaurant but good for any kind of merchandise business. Living rooms above. Apply or write to this office.

IN remitting for his I. J. to June, 1908, Rev. Gilbert Glass, now of Covington, writes: "The INTERIOR JOURNAL keeps me informed about Stanford and her fine people and that is of more value to me than a good many dollars."

At 25c per garment less than we paid we could have purchased averagely good underwear, but we paid the difference and secured better garments at 50c and $1 than you ever saw. More for your money always at Cummins & McClary's.

Go to D. V. Kennedy & Co., for meal, shipstuffs and flour. They make prices any hour. Their custom is great, their mill is small; they are anxious to grind for one and all. The corn is ripe, the wheat is plenty; the price of shipstuffs is one and twenty.

RENNER.—Mr. J. W. Renner, one of the best citizens of Rockcastle county, died last week at his home near Pongo. He was known as "Little Joe" and no county had as a citizen a more honorable and straightforward man. He is survived by his wife and several children.

THE large barn on Mrs. Isaac Hamilton's farm burned between 5 and 6 o'clock Friday evening together with its contents, a horse, three cows, 250 bales of hay, 150 bales of straw, etc. She had $300 insurance in a company represented by Mr. R. B. Mahony. Believing that the fire was started by an incendiary, Lair & Brown's bloodhounds were telephoned for from Hustonville. They trailed for a couple of miles but lost the scent. It is believed that the person who applied the torch mounted a horse where the dogs gave up the trail.

MR. GEORGE B. SAUFLEY, of Lincoln county, who is speaking in Woodford county for the Democratic ticket this week, was here for a short while with W. O. Davis, says the Frankfort Journal. He reports that much enthusiasm has been aroused among the Woodford Democrats and that a big vote for the State ticket and Harry Schobert for Representative will be polled on Tuesday. As far as Lincoln is concerned, Mr. Saufley says that the organization is in splendid shape, and that the county will be found in the right column on election day.

THE people of Stanford have been noted for good taste in many particulars. Good taste consists in the faculty of appreciating in objects or performances the presence of symmetry, order, beauty or excellency of whatever sort. Next Friday evening the good people will have an opportunity to exercise that good taste by attending an entertainment of the highest order. If anyone does not possess that faculty, it is a splendid time to acquire it. Encourage an enterprise that will help you and your neighbor to relish what is best and most refined in the amusement and entertainment line. Those who have promised to take season tickets will please go to W. B. McRoberts' Drug Store Tuesday. Regular sale of tickets begins Wednesday. Give the first entertainers of the course a record breaking house and encourage the workers for high class entertainments.

WE are showing a very attractive line of wool shirts and coat-sweaters for men. See them. Cummins & McClary.

SMALL COIN.—Mr. S. L. Ashley, of the Turnersville section, showed us Saturday an English coin made in 1816. It is a quarter of a cent and so small that the owner carried it in a piece of paper to keep from losing it.

ATTEND the great horse sale of Mr. Forestus Reid at his farm, 2½ miles from Stanford on the Hustonville pike, to-morrow, Wednesday, Nov. 6. He will sell 60 great saddle and harness horses, including five stallions. See "ad."

AT Lancaster the other day, Mr. Thomas B. Walker showed us a beautiful sample of granite that is found in abundance on his splendid farm near Lancaster. It appears to us that Mr. Walker has a good thing with which to bring him wealth.

BIG POTATOES.—Mr. P. W. Carter brought us in a sack of potatoes Saturday that were the finest we have seen in years. He got the seed from John Christman, the florist. If any of our readers think they can beat Mr. Carter's potatoes let them bring them in.

FOR SALE.—A new traction engine, one separator, self feeder and wind stacker. One saw mill with 300,000 feet of logs to saw at 50c per 100. The owner's only reason for selling is on account of ill health. All this machinery is comparatively new and cost about $3,000. It can be bought for a very low price. See or address L. R. Hughes, Stanford, Ky.

MR. UTTER H. POPE, brother of Mrs. W. S. Denham, of this place, was killed by a train at Ivorydale, O., a few days ago. He was crossing a double track and it is supposed that he was getting out of the way of one train and was struck by another. Mr. Pope lived in Boyle until a short while ago. He leaves a wife to mourn his untimely end. Mr. Pope was a splendid young man.

THE Harmony Concert Company drew a large audience at the high school concert, and that the performance was pleasing was evidenced by the fact that nearly every number was encored. The Kirksmith sisters, with violins and flute, made beautiful harmony, being artistically accompanied upon the piano by Miss Daisy Higgins.—Tunkbannock Pa., Republican. Hear this splendid company at Walton's Opera House next Friday evening, Nov. 8.

CIRCUIT COURT begun yesterday but after the grand jury was given clear and concise instructions by Judge W. C. Bell, court adjourned until Wednesday morning. The grand jury is composed of T. A. Rice, foreman, A. M. Frye, S. D. Eads, Hunter House, J. N. Carter, J. N. Menefee, J. A. Hollars, L. P. Weaver, P. C. Sandidge, J. G. Baugh, S. M. Chandler, J. T. Stephenson. The petit jury is as follows: I. M. Bruce, G. F. Gooch, C. Fowler, J. F. Holtzclaw, J. K. Sutton, Wilson Alexander, Geo. D. Robinson, F. M. Ware, Joseph Phelps, Middleton Lynn, T. J. Robinson, D. M. Anderson, P. L. Beck, J. D. Eads, S. H. Helm, A. J. Thompson, J. E. Jones, J. T. Roberts, W. H. Underwood, W. P. Carson, G. L. Carpenter, Wm. Curtis, Thomas Manuel, A. M. Luce. The case of the Commonwealth against P. F. Kennedy is set for Wednesday.

THE suggestion of Rev. Dr. McCook that the crime of rape, where the offense shall be clearly proven, should be punished by such surgical amendment of the body of the perpetrator as would prevent him from its repetition is worthy of the most serious consideration, but it is not new. Thirty years or more ago Judge Thomas W. Varnon, the member from Lincoln county, introduced a bill to that effect, but the members thought it impractical and unnecessarily cruel. But the punishment would be far less cruel than the crime. In the case of the criminal himself it would prove an absolute after-preventive, and there is good reason to believe a foreknowledge of the penalty would prove the best possible deterrent. Castration would prove more effective than imprisonment, unless the imprisonment should be for life. Experience has fully demonstrated that imprisonment affords no remedy.—Frankfort Journal.

No election bulletins will be received at the depot to-night, the Western Union declining to send them out.

THE C. W. B. M. will meet at the Christian church at 2:30 Wednesday afternoon. A full attendance is desired as the election of officers will take place.

YOUR attention is called to the display advertisement of W. H. Mueller, Stanford's up-to-date jeweler. You will find it on our first page. Read it each issue. It will be time well spent.

ON account of the death of Judge R. C. Warren the republicans called off their speaking here Saturday afternoon. Gov. W. O. Bradley came as advertised but instead of speaking held an informal reception in Dr. R. L. Davison's office. It was quite magnanimous in them to postpone indefinitely the appointment after it had been so extensively advertised.

AT Junction City next Friday evening, Nov. 8, the pretty play, Mrs. "Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch" will be presented by Miss Harrietta Jones, who studied the part under S. H. Clark, of Chicago University, and a number of Junction City people. The proceeds will go to the Christian church of that place. Go and see a good show and at the same time help a good cause.

JUDGE RICHARD C. WARREN, of Lincoln county, whose death was announced in yesterday's State Journal, was as true a man as ever lived and a Democrat of the purest mould. We had known him for a quarter of a century and loved him for his many noble qualities of mind and heart. May the sod rest lightly over his honest old bosom and may God give comfort and reconciliation to his loving wife and children.—Frankfort Journal.

Notice of Election!

Regular term Lincoln county fiscal court held April 2, 1907, Hon. R. C. Warren presiding, with the following Justices of the Peace, to-wit: W. D. Wallin, J. A. Dudderar, W. M. Dudderar and D. R. Adams.

It was moved by Justice W. M. Dudderar and seconded by Justice W. D. Wallin that the following action be taken by this court: The grand jury of Lincoln county at its February term, 1907, of the Lincoln circuit court, having recommended a new court house for Lincoln county, and it appearing to the satisfaction of this court that the same is now in use is unsafe and inadequate for the public convenience and preservation of the Public Records. It is ordered and adjudged that the sum of thirty-five thousand dollars be suggested as the sum necessary to build a new court house, and it is further ordered that an election be held and a poll opened at the several voting precincts in Lincoln County on Tuesday November 5, 1907, the day of the next general election, at which the appropriation above suggested shall be submitted to the legal voters of Lincoln county for their approval or rejection.

The sheriff of Lincoln county is directed to advertise said election for at least thirty days next before the day thereof in the Interior Journal, being the only newspaper published in Lincoln county; and the officers of said election are directed to hold the election between the same hours that they are required to hold elections for county officers, which election shall be held and conducted in all respects as required by the general election law in force in this State at the time the same is held.

The Clerk of the Lincoln county court shall cause to be printed on the official Ballots to be used in said election the words and figures "Are you in favor of an appropriation of $35,000 for building a new Court House for Lincoln County?" and have two spaces upon the right of right same, one for voters favoring the appropriation to be designated by the word "yes," and one for voters opposing the appropriation to be designated by the word "no." And said Clerk shall prepare said ballots in all other respects as required by Section 159 of the Kentucky Statutes.

How to Cure Your Piles

If sufferers from piles and rectal diseases would first try a reliable laxative like Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin instead of using external salves and suppositories, or having an operation performed, they would save themselves a world of trouble, expense and pain. The reason is that in nine cases out of ten piles are the result of habitual constipation, and when once the constipation is thoroughly cured the piles disappear.

Piles are to constipation what pimples are to bad blood, simply an outward symptom. And just as face lotions aren't half as good for pimples as a good blood medicine, so salves and suppositories aren't half as good for piles as a reliable laxative like Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. A 50-cent bottle will prove these claims, and every druggist is authorized to guarantee results. Hundreds of people have written us that Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is the best cure they know of, and it is surely worth a trial from you. Not only will it cure the piles but it will permanently correct bowel trouble so that you will have regular movements. It will tone the stomach and make digestion easy for you. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is the best remedy for constipation, dyspepsia, biliousness, flatulency, and all resultant troubles, such as piles, arising from disordered stomach, liver or bowels. Its gentle action and pleasant taste make it especially suited to children and all who are too weak to stand purgative waters, salts and gripping powders and tablets. A physic is not what pile sufferers need, but steady, easy bowel movements, and these can be obtained by the use of this wonderful remedy. It brings about a permanent home cure at a minimum of expense.

FREE TEST Those wishing to try Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin before buying can have a free sample bottle sent to their home by addressing the company. There's Exceptional Style in this "Yale" Suit for Young Men

IT'S another of the Ederheimer-Stein garments we've selected to demonstrate in every sale we make that this is, in fact, a superior clothing store.

Q. The Yale is the smartest Young Man's style—striking in the weave and rich colors of the fabrics—combines good taste, service, satisfaction—lends the air of true refinement—is fashionable without being fancy.

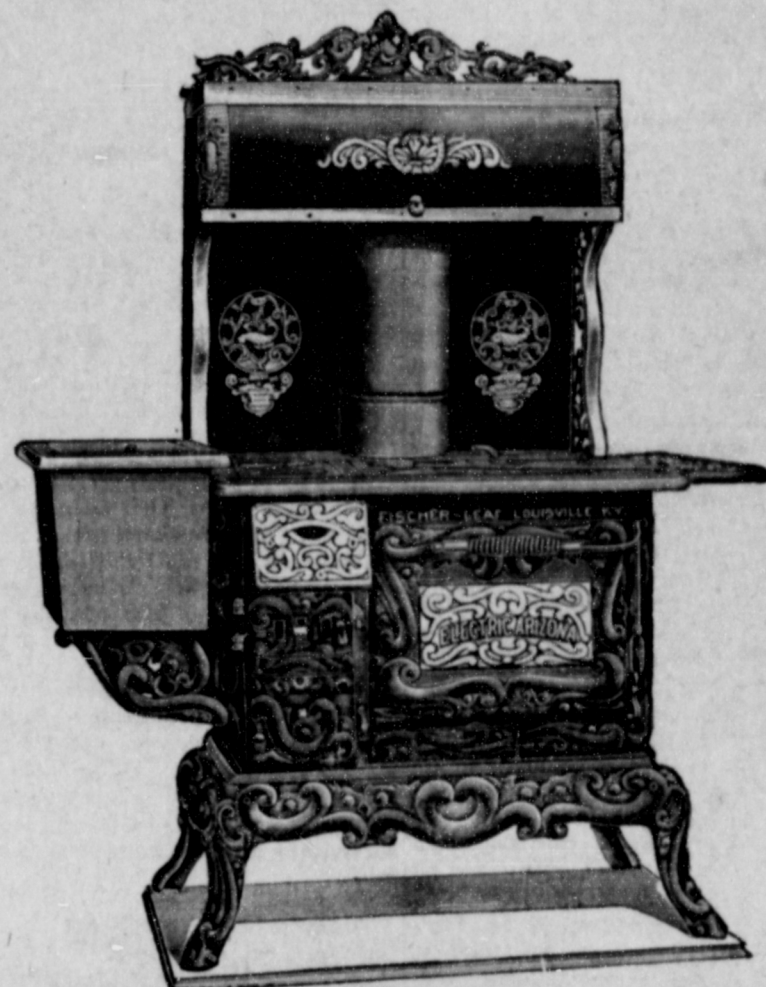

Q. The young fellow who exercises common sense and good judgment in the selection of this style, cannot be commonplace. It's a suit for college men or any others who are particular. Let us show it to you.

Superior tailoring reaches its climax in the Yale. Each garment is made separately by skillful hand needlework throughout. Trimmings and fabrics all match. Every operation of the tailor contributes to make it distinctive, individual.

THE "YALE".—Coat is long and full chested; cuffs on sleeves; open seams down back of coat and sides of trousers. Trousers full at waist. Sizes 30 to 38. Prices $18 to $35.
